What holidays do Jehovah witnesses celebrate

Jehovah's Witnesses do not celebrate holidays that they believe do not fit true Christianity. These include Christmas, Easter, and even birthdays. The Jehovah's Witnesses believe that Christ did not command his birth - or any birth - to be celebrated; he just wanted his death to be remembered. Can Jehovah Witness kiss? Kissing on the cheek, nose, or forehead is acceptable for both genders as long as it doesn't make the other person uncomfortable. When Jehovah Witness children grow up they will be able to french kiss all they want with a member of the opposite sex that they're married to! Do Jehovah Witnesses celebrate Easter? Each territory is comprised of three to four blocks. Jehovah's witnesses do not celebrate national or religious holidays or birthdays. The only day they do memorialize is Jesus Christ's death around the time of Easter and Passover. Can Jehovah Witness have non witness friends? Not being able to have non-Witness friends Jehovah's Witnesses aren't allowed to befriend non-Witnesses. Why would you get close to someone whom God was going to execute at Armageddon? I broke this rule a lot during my 13 years as a Jehovah's Witness, but I always kept my non-Witness friends a secret. Do Jehovah Witness believe in heaven? Witnesses believe in Heaven, but do not believe in Hell. Unlike many other religions, Jehovah's Witnesses believe that death is not just the death of the physical body but also the death of the soul. "When a person dies, he ceases to exist. ... However, they do believe that resurrection is possible. Can Jehovah Witnesses divorce? Jehovah's Witnesses adhere to the Bible's view of marriage and divorce. Monogamy between one man and one woman and sex only within marriage are requirements in the Witness religion. But Witnesses do permit divorce in certain cases, believing that the only valid ground for divorce and remarriage is adultery. Can Jehovah Witness get tattoos? Jehovah's Witnesses point to Leviticus, a chapter in the Bible that says a person "must not make tattoo markings" on themselves. Evelyn Smith, a longtime Jehovah's Witness, cited the Bible's counsel in that chapter as a key reason to avoid them, as well as the perception that it gives within the everyday work setting. Can Jehovah Witnesses play sports? Although many young Witnesses do engage in casual recreational sports, the association discourages its members from extensively participating in athletic activities to avoid giving undue importance to sports or recreation. Members are discouraged (but not prohibited) from watching or participating in violent sports. Can Jehovah Witness have a blood test? BLOOD TESTS - Blood is usually seen by Jehovah Witnesses to represent life itself. Specimens must therefore be treated with respect, and disposed of with care. DIET - Jehovah Witnesses believe it is forbidden to eat blood or blood products. Do Jehovah Witnesses swear? Cursing, then, is a sin among Jehovah's Witnesses, but it's a "nonjudicial" one—meaning it's not sufficiently grave to merit formal censure from Witness elders and cannot lead to "disfellowshipping" (expulsion from the congregation). ... Jehovah's Witnesses, of course, aren't alone in discouraging bad language. Can a Jehovah Witness go to college? Pew Research shows that only 9 percent of Witnesses get undergraduate degrees. That's well below the national average of 30.4 percent and the lowest of any faith group. The likely reason for this trend is the religion's official warnings against college. See also how to prove something is a parallelogramAre Jehovah's Witnesses virgins? Witnesses reject the doctrine of the perpetual virginity of Mary, who they believe bore more children after Jesus. How do you shut up a Jehovah Witness? Interrupt them. When a Jehovah's Witness starts talking, interrupt with a polite, "Excuse me" to get their attention. Try raising your hand an holding it between the two of you at chest level with your palm facing the other person and begin your interjection with, "Hold on." For Jehovah's witnesses, there is only one God, and that's Jehovah; whereas Christians believe in the Holy Trinity of God's presence " God as the father, as the son (Jesus Christ), and God as the Holy Spirit. ... The very apparent disagreement between Jehovah's witnesses and Christians is their view of Jesus Christ. Do Jehovah Witness wear crosses? Jehovah's Witnesses believe that Jesus did not die on a cross but on single stake. ... Modern Witnesses regard the Cross as a pagan symbol and do not use it, although it was accepted by the movement until 1931. Do Jehovah Witnesses accept gifts? I savour a present, a thoughtful gift, I don't want something for the sake of tradition, and I want to give others presents I've pondered over, or that I've spotted in a shop and instantly know they will love. Do Jehovah Witnesses leave wills? Jehovah's Witnesses believe in wills and are advised to draft this document to bequeath their final assets. They are encouraged to benefit the Kingdom in the event of their death and to leave everything to the Watchtower Society or congregation so as to repay Jehovah. Can Jehovah Witnesses go into other churches? Jehovah's Witnesses are best known for preaching their beliefs from door-to-door and in other public places, and offering their magazines. The Watchtower and Awake! They are also well known for refusing to join armies and refusing blood transfusions. What is unique about Jehovah Witnesses' Witnesses hold a number of traditional Christian views but also many that are unique to them. They affirm that God—Jehovah—is the most high. Jesus Christ is God's agent, through whom sinful humans can be reconciled to God. The Holy Spirit is the name of God's active force in the world. Why do Jehovah Witnesses not celebrate birthdays?
